

B. The Fulfillment of Righteousness in Christ

Sermon Notes

June 6, 2010 evening service

Pastor Mike Ross

Christ Covenant Church

“The Ten Commandments”

Deuteronomy 5:1-6, 22-33

C. The Requirements of the Law for Us

INTRODUCTION: There is something known as The Three Formulae in historic Christianity...

A. The Three Formulae (plural for formula)

1.

2.

3.

B. In fact, most historic Catholic and Protestant Catechisms are organized around the Three Formulae

1.

2.

3.

C. Does living under the Gospel negate our duty to keep the Law?

CONCLUSION: There may be no more unpopular sermon series possible to preach in our age than the Ten Commandments

A. Look at life around us. It is exactly what Jesus said it would be...

1.

2.

3.

D. This evening I want to introduce you to the Ten Commandments:
Deuteronomy 5:1-33

1.

2.

3.

E. Three sets of three observations to introduce the Law...

I. THE THREE TYPES OF LAW (Deuteronomy 5:1-5)

A. The Moral Law

B. The Ceremonial Law

C. The Civil Law

II. THE THREE USES OF THE LAW (Deuteronomy 5:22-33)

A. The First Use of the Law: A Tutor to Christ

B. The Second Use of the Law: The Retainer of Evil

C. The Third Use of the Law: The Guide for Christians

III. THE THREE PARTS TO THE LAW (Deuteronomy 5:6-21)

A. The Character of God