

IV. JESUS UNDERSTANDS THAT WE NEED HIS HELP IN KEEP-ING GOD'S LAW

A. But Jesus knows three things about us...

First:

Second:

Third:

CONCLUSION: The radical demands of the Sermon on the Mount changed the life and destiny of a young German man named Dietrich Bonhoeffer.

A. What can Jesus' Sermon on the Mount do to you?

Sermon Notes

June 6, 2010 morning service

Pastor Mike Ross

Christ Covenant Church

"True Righteousness"

Matthew 5:17-20

INTRODUCTION: The Sermon on the Mount, like any sermon, can be divided into sections...

A. I would suggest to you that Jesus preaches a classic three-point message in His Sermon on the Mount:

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

B. Jesus includes transition statements in His sermons that enable His hearers to move from point to point and to follow His train of thought...

Transition #1:

Transition #2:

C. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus is telling us

D. Jesus is telling us Four Truths about the Christian, the Kingdom of Heaven, and the Law of God.

I. JESUS HAS A HIGH VIEW OF THE OLD TESTAMENT (Matthew 5:17-18)

A. Jesus says three straightforward things here:

First:

Second:

Third:

B. His Point:

II. JESUS EXPECTS US TO TAKE SERIOUSLY THE LAW OF GOD (Matthew 5:19)

A. Jesus tells us

B. Jesus' main point here is this:

III. JESUS CALLS FOR A DEEPER APPLICATION OF THE LAW (Matthew 5:20)

A. In the six paragraphs and 28 verses that follow, Jesus does an amazing thing: He interprets the Law for us...

B. What is God really after in each commandment?