

Christ Covenant Youth Ministry

High School

CLC Youth Center

Topic: Common Roadblocks in Evangelizing a Lost World

Teachers/Facilitators: Pastor Stewart Neely
& Youth Ministry Teaching Team

The high school class will seek to understand and address some of the most common hurdles in sharing the Gospel, from addressing the problem of theodicy, to the hypocrisy of Christians, to the apparent “division” between faith and science. We hope to engage with pertinent questions non-Christians offer while also viewing God’s sovereignty in the salvation of the lost.

Middle School

CLC Youth Center

Our middle school students will be studying the book of Colossians this spring.

Distinctive features of this class include caring buddies who facilitate individualized learning, visible encouragement, and the extensive use of music for worship. Scripture memory, missionary stories, and learning fun.

Our Children’s Ministry offers a full schedule of classes for infants through elementary grades. For security, every child is issued an ID tag through the Visitors’ Center in Building B, Room 102. Your child’s specific room information will be provided at the first check-in.

Communicants Class (5th Graders)

The communicants class (March 5-May 14) prepares 5th graders to understand the elements of the faith as part of their public profession of faith and prepares them to become communing members of the church. Children who are currently attending the 5th grade Sunday school are already registered for this class. If your child is not already registered, please fill out the online form on <http://children.christcovenant.org> under Ministries>Elementary. Parents must attend a mandatory meeting on March 5. This class is required for those seeking to join Christ Covenant Church. Meets in room 105 of the Worship Center.

Coram Deo (senior adults)

Worship Center, Room 201 (Choir Room)

Topic: Stories Jesus Told

Teacher: Pastor Bruce Creswell

The world's greatest Teacher spoke clearly and used simple stories of everyday life to illustrate His teachings. Individually and collectively, these stories we call parables play an important part in our Lord's mission of salvation and judgment. As we look at His parables, we will seek to understand their purpose and their significance in His teaching and for our lives. We invite you to join us in our study of the stories Jesus told.

Young Seniors

Worship Center, Room 211

Topic: Exploring the Story of Biblical Worship

Teacher: Dr. Paul Engle

Join us for a fresh exploration of what the Bible teaches about worship. We'll view the sweep of the biblical story from Genesis to Revelation, looking at how this impacts our experience of worship today. We'll discover the overarching umbrella that unlocks the meaning of worship as we climb seven mountains where worship occurred. This class will utilize hundreds of slides, video clips, discussion, and handouts along our 10-week spring journey. Dr. Engle, our instructor for this quarter, has written extensively on this subject and taught it as an adjunct professor in several countries.

Sojourners (parents of college-age students)

Community Life Center (Rooms 5 & 6)

Topic: Vocational Calling

Teacher: Pastor Mike Miller

The Sojourners community will continue our study of faith and work using a variety of books and resources designed to help the Christian understand his or her purpose in God's plan as related to vocational calling. Gleaning from the books, Your Work Matters to God, Kingdom Callings and Every Good Endeavor, we seek to gain a Biblical understanding of our various jobs and connect them to God's design and purpose.

Student Families (parents of MS/HS students)

Community Life Center (CLC) Chapel

Topic: What's in a Name?

Teacher: Pastor Brian Peterson

God may be known in three primary ways. First, we can know God through His attributes, or getting to know Him in His nature. Second, we can know God through His names, or knowing God for how He relates to His people and to creation. Finally, these all converge by knowing God through the person and work of Jesus Christ. The Student Families community will be learning to know God through the names by which He has revealed Himself, each of which point to the Son. This topic, The Names of God, began February 5 and will continue through April 2, at which time we will begin a survey of different people in the Bible for whom God changed their names and how they interacted with the redemptive significance of the new name in Christ.

Young Families

Community Life Center (Rooms 1 & 2)

Topic: Communication and More

Teacher: Young Families Elders and Friends

One could contend that the greatest need and the greatest challenge in marriage — and in all of life — is communication in a manner that builds up and does not tear down. We'll look at biblical instruction on communication, and look at how to improve our communication skills. We will mix in some fellowship times and some Sundays of special focus.

Young Professionals (young singles/newly married)

and 18|22 Generation (college age)

Community Life Center (Rooms 3 & 4)

Teacher: Pastor Dave Baxter

These are hard days — often threatening to consume us with discouragement and fear. This spring quarter, we will continue to look at how we can live with hope in the midst of hard times by remembering that God is always at work, training us to see what He is doing, and aligning our lives (and hopes) with His purposes.

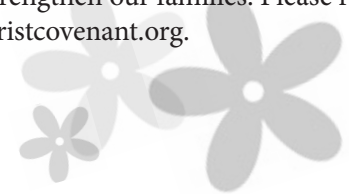

The Smart Stepfamily

(special 12-week study)

CDS High School Room 109

Teachers: John and Asheley Ramseur

When we start our journey as a stepfamily, we may not understand what challenges we will face or how long it might take to reach "The Promised Land" of a healthy stepfamily. Just as God brought Israel out of slavery in Egypt, God can redeem our families out of the tragedy and pain that go along with divorce and remarriage. The Smart Stepfamily gives encouragement and wisdom in an effort to help stepfamilies walk hand in hand with their Lord in the present. Join us to learn the steps to strengthen our families. Please register at marriage@christcovenant.org.
