

The Whole Story of the Bible in 16 Verses.

Week 4 Study Guide – Redemption Promised

- A. What makes Genesis 3:14-15 so central to the story of the Bible?
- a. The fall of man introduced shame and guilt into man's relationship with God.
 - i. What did God's promise to the serpent introduce into man's relationship with man?
- B. In what ways do you see the seed of the serpent influencing the world around you?
- a. Does the enmity between the 'two lines' (i.e., the line of the serpent and the line of the woman) have any practical effects on how you view the world?
- C. What does the "2 lines" doctrine say about missions?
- D. Read Genesis 4-11. Notice how those chapters unfold the story of the "2 lines."
- E. What sin tendencies do you see unfolding in Genesis 4-11 that are similar to today?