THIS WEEK'S HIGHLIGHT "We're Glad You're Here!"

Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. — Romans 15:7

In a society where there is a handbook for everything, it should be no surprise to learn that Amazon carries close to 100 different books on how to create a welcoming church. That seems like a lot of words to reveal that one of the easiest and best ways to be a part of a congregation where people feel welcomed is to put yourself in the guests' shoes.

That's it. Hospitality in God's house doesn't require any special gifts, complicated techniques, or a "fourteen-point program." All we need to do is treat everyone here just like the Head of this house treats us. You don't have to worry about saying the wrong thing. Use the words you would like to hear from a stranger or a friend: "It's good to see you." "Hello!" "I'm happy you're here." "Isn't this a beautiful day?" If there's no time to say anything, a smile will deliver your message. You'll have time to say hello after the benediction.

Our growing congregation offers us many opportunities to greet visitors and guests with a friendly hello to let them know we are happy to have them join us for worship. We don't want anyone to slip out of our sanctuary without at least that brief contact, whether it is our morning or evening service.

To help reach that goal, our Welcoming and Connecting Ministry is looking for a few more smiling volunteers to join our team of greeters for the evening service. To learn more, please stop by the Information Desk in the lobby after morning worship or contact Mary Jo Culver at 704-814-1039 or mculver@christcovenant.org.
